eBook, executive job search guide with animations

Intelligent Networker is the fast-track 360° roadmap to smarter job search for senior executives aiming higher, or those who are unemployed and need to access the hidden jobs market quickly.

Dynamic, no-nonsense and easy to read, Intelligent Networker will bring its readers right up to date with a comprehensive guide to the intelligent use of social networking and how best to present yourself to potential employers.

Concise and motivational, it's aimed directly at high achievers; intelligent, ambitious job seekers at senior manager and CXO level throughout industry and commerce.

These include high flyers in sales, marketing, HR, finance, IT, consulting, customer services, or manufacturing. And it applies whether you're a specialist in your field or a manager/CXO type.

□ How to establish the kind of position you should be looking for

□ How to develop an action plan

□ How to create a CV/Resume which gets results

□ How to target prospective employers

□ How to use all job search techniques

□ How to network with people and uncover the hidden jobs market

□ How to use social media and networks such as LinkedIn.

Plus it includes a comprehensive toolbox containing essential phrases to use when networking, examples of application letters and email cover sheets, insight into on-line resources and even a section on how to overcome ageism.

Most people are confident they know everything there is about finding a job, but they're wrong. In reality they'll probably spend less than one per cent of their lives in job search, so they don't have the experience, and it's not a core competence.

So, no matter how good at job search you think you are, Intelligent Networker will open your eyes to the hidden jobs market and help you find a better job faster.
